

ART DETECTIVE: PORTRAITS

Watts Gallery – Artists' Village is a museum and art gallery near Guildford where two Victorian artists, George Frederic (or GF) and Mary Watts, lived and made paintings, drawings, textiles, pottery and sculpture about 120 years ago.

There are lots of portraits and self-portraits on display at Watts Gallery – Artists' Village and we'd like to share some with you.

There are three parts to this pack, to support you to LOOK, THINK and MAKE.

LOOK

A sheet of portraits to investigate, from the walls of Watts Gallery – Artists' Village

THINK

An Art Detective activity sheet to help you look closely and plan an artwork of your own

MAKE

A picture frame for you to draw, paint or collage your very own portrait or self-portrait

You might also want to tune in to our brand-new series of bedtime (or any time!) stories, by storyteller Olivia Armstrong for Watts Gallery – Artists' Village.
