Practise writing the numerals 1-10. You could use coloured pens, paint, pencils – it's up to you.	Watch the video of Mrs King telling the story of the 3 Billy Goats Gruff. This is on Bears eSchools pages. Start to learn the story and the actions.	Make a paper bridge 	Look at pictures of bridges on the internet. Why do we need bridges? Do we have any bridges in Godalming? Can you find photos?	Practise writing the sounds you are recapping in phonics this week.
Subtraction – lay out 10 or 20 objects – pieces of pasta or peas. Roll a dice to tell you how many to take away. How many are left?	Draw a picture of your favourite part of the story and write some sentences underneath. Or you could use the pictures saved below and write about them.	Draw or paint a picture of what you imagine the troll to look like. Can you give him a name?	Build a bridge strong enough for you to stand on. You could use hard back books, tins, a tray, chairs, lego.	Choose a fun active clip to watch and join in with at GO Noodle .
Subtraction – lay out 10 or 20 objects – pieces of pasta or peas. Close your eyes and a grown up takes some away. Open your eyes and try to solve the mystery of how many are missing.	Listen to a different version of the 3 Billy Goats Story here	Use loo rolls to create characters from the story. 	Find out what goats like to eat apart from grass. Can you find out what other animals like to eat?	Make up your own Joe Wicks style workout to music.
Make some biscuits or cakes and count how many you have. Write on a piece of paper how many you have. Each day check how many are left and how many have been taken away.	Teach your family how we play tricky word BINGO in phonics. Draw a grid with 6 spaces, write a tricky word in each space. Ask a grown up to call out tricky words – who will get bingo?	Make a troll with any crafts you have 	How many different types of goat are there? Where do goats like to live? Can you make some fact cards about goats?	Lay out some cushions and jump on two feet from one cushion to the next. Look out for the trolls!
Play race to zero. Start with 10/20/30 items. Take turns to roll a dice and take that number away. The first to zero is the winner!	Practise learning the story and the actions – maybe put on a performance of the story for your family.	Turn an old sock into a troll or goat puppet. 	Watch Andy's Safari Adventures with Mountain Goats here 	Learn a new skill with your hands e.g. how to open a packet of crisps, put on your socks

Once upon a time there was not one, not two, but three Billy Goats Gruff.

They lived by a stream.

One morning they woke up and wanted to cross the bridge to eat the green green grass.

First, the baby Billy Goat Gruff went trip trap trip trap over the bridge.

Who's that trip trapping over my bridge? said the troll under the bridge.

It is I, baby Billy Goat Gruff

Well I'm going to eat you up! Said the troll.

No no no said the Baby Billy Goat Gruff. Wait for my older brother. He is much bigger and tastier than me!

So the troll let him pass by.

Next, the middle Billy Goat Gruff went trip trap trip trap over the bridge.

Who's that trip trapping over my bridge? said the troll under the bridge.

It is I, middle Billy Goat Gruff

Well I'm going to eat you up! Said the troll.

No no no said the middle Billy Goat Gruff. Wait for my older brother. He is much bigger and tastier than me!

So the troll let him pass by.

Finally, big Billy Goat Gruff went trip trap trip trap over the bridge.

Who's that trip trapping over my bridge? said the troll under the bridge.

It is I, Big Billy Goat Gruff

Well I'm going to eat you up! Said the troll.

Oh no you won't said the Big Billy Goat Gruff

Big Billy Goat Gruff went trip trap trip trap trip trap REALLY fast over the bridge, pushed the troll into the water with a mighty SPLASH!

Finally, the 3 Billy Goats ate fresh green grass and lived HAPPILY EVER AFTER.

The end
